Long Operating Louisiana Under Gaze of Medics

COVINGTON, La., (UPI)—Gov. Earl K. Long, out of mental hospitals for the first time in almost a month, ran the state of Louisiana today from a motel, under the watchful eyes of three psychiatrists.

Long disappeared from the motel Friday night and a state trooper said he had left for his home in Winnfield, in the north central part of the state.

BUT HIS OFFICIAL car later turned up at the motel and a new shift of troopers who came on duty early today said he had been out for relaxation and had returned and gone to sleep.

The psychiatrists made it plain that they will stand for no foolishness from Long and ordered seven or eight days of rest with only essential visitors for him.

EVEN SO, LONG was expected to take revenge on others he regarded as responsible for putting away a man who has "never been insane a second in his life."

That estimate of his mental condition was Long's own. The three psychiatrists said they thought he ought to still be in the hospital.

Planning Commission report on

MAGIC, BAGIC IN VILLAGE RETURN

The organizations which determine what California males will wear will return—after a one-season absence—to the Village in October with a five-day Market week here in addition to its two-day Fashion Roundup.

Chamber of Commerce manager Jimmy Cooper said today that the Men's Apparel Guild in California (MAGIC) and the Boy's Apparel Guild in California (BAGIC) will be headquartered in Palm Springs' newest hostelry—the currently-building Riviera Hotel.

SINCE 1942, WHEN the MAGIC BAGIC directors started convening for an industry-wide viewing of new styles for men and boys, the two organizations have met in Palm Springs for the convention phase of their meeting, then adjourned to a Los Angeles hotel for the Market Week showing, according to Chamber Convention Manager Roberto Nye. They did not meet here last year.

The sprawling new Riviera Hotel will be the scene of both the two-day Fashion Roundup and the five-day Market Week on Oct. 17-21, it was announced.

KNUTE THORSEN, executive director of MAGIC, said that the two organizations will again institute a window display contest here with Village merchants vying for prizes. The competition will be divided into different categories with prizes slated for department stores, men's specialty shops, boys' wear stores, and so on.

Thorsen also advised that MAGIC-BAGIC will handle a 12,500 mailing on the meeting here. He added that an anticipated 2,000 members of the two organizations are expected to attend the conclave.

THE CHAMBER SAID that while the Riviera will furnish both headquarters for the MAGIC-BAGIC meeting here, the hotel's facilities will not be able to accommodate the influx of some 2,000 visitors. The Chamber is obtaining additional reservations for the week-long meeting in other Village hotels to augment the Riviera's space.

The Chamber will also work conjunctively with the MAGIC-BAGIC officials in registration of guests at the Riviera, will supply street banners announcing the conclave, will furnish and distribute window placards announcing the meet and will also furnish and issue badges and buttons to convention attendees.

Four Airmen Die In Two Texas Air Tragedies

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, (UPI)—Two Air Force jet planes, one an RB-66 reconnaissance bomber, crashed in the San Antonio area within one hour and 50 miles of each other Friday night, killing at least four persons, and possibly six.

Air Force firemen who had to walk four miles through rugged, hilly, brush-country, found three bodies at the site of the bomber crash, 27 miles northwest of San Antonio early today. They waited for daylight to bring the bodies out.

The pilot of the second plane, a T-33 jet trainer enroute from Luke Air Force Base, Ariz., to Randolph AFB near San Antonio, was killed when his craft plunged into farmland 26 miles southeast of San Antonio.

Formal Opening Of DHS Adult Center Delayed

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Opening ceremonies for the new Desert Hot Springs adult recreation center have been postponed "possibly until Labor Day."

B. J. Jublou, chairman of the center's advisory committee, said the formal opening was postponed to give the committee time to plan a "more elaborate" ceremony.

The center was originally scheduled for an opening program on July 4. Jublou added that the center will be available for limited use within a few weeks.

The new facility, created by the county park and recreation commission, will be open all summer. It is part of a five-year county plan to create recreational facilities here for all ages.

The community already has children's recreational facilities at the community park, which is also the site for the recreation center, and plans are underway for a youth center and possibly tennis and volleyball courts.

Work is expected to start next fall on the youth center.

Baby Subs Said Shark Solution

AZUSA, Calif. — UPI — Aerojet-General Corp. today suggested its one or two-man baby submarines as a weapon to fight sharks. "They're the most effective thing we can suggest," said Jim Stubbard, project engineer for the company's 14-foot long fiberglass Minisub, who has personally dispatched two sharks.

Savings and Loan Merger Nearer

Possible merger of seven California Savings and Loan Associations looked even better today, according to a dispatch from United Press International.

Included in the merger, which will result in a net worth in excess of $9,800,000, is Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association, and six other companies in Fresno, San Gabriel, Compton, Escondido, Marysville and Chico.

The dispatch said that the state has approved an additional permit, but the merger will not take effect from the Security Exchange Commission.

The merger is expected to take place on July 7.

Tying in the seven companies under a single organization to be known as the Financial Federation, Inc., will mean only that the associations have a common revenue from which to draw. Each association, such as Coachella Valley Savings and Loan in Palm

Springs, will operate "just as it has before."

MISS PALM SPRINGS, 1960

All of Palm Springs... the thousands of us who call it "home"... are cheering their latest darling, Gloria Neil, Miss Palm Springs.

When she reported at the Palm Springs airport Wednesday morning for her private air-taxi trip (compliments of Roy Shreck) to Burbank and the Miss California Contest, the group on hand to wish Godspeed to a very charming young woman felt she would certainly return as the crowned queen of California.

She was a picture in yellow and white... wearing a special Jane Wade "Palm Springs" hat and carrying a tote basket made for her by Beverly Fretz, inscribed "Miss Palm Springs." Miss California will be chosen by an imposing panel of judges in the big Miss California Pageant in impressive ceremonies at the Starlight Bowl in Burbank tonight.

We are proud of you, Gloria, and are confident your natural beauty, your poise and your radiant personality will take you on to even greater success.

Drought Increases Peril of Summer Fire Season in Mountain Regions

Arrival of summer brings to Southern California this year the most potentially dangerous brush and forest fire season in many years in hilly and mountainous regions.

With the lowest amount of winter precipitation in the area in more than 80 years of weather bureau recordings and consequent lack of the normal amount of protective moisture in the vegetative covering of the vast hinterlands, a tinderlike condition exists which could result in disastrous conflagrations of calamitous proportions if not well guarded against.

Not only is the situation more fraught with danger than usual due to the exceeding dryness but travel records maintained at key points show that the steadily mounting California population is resulting in greatly increased numbers of people entering the parks and other mountain areas each year. Many of these are on their first outings and camping trips into brush and timberlands and not aware of or trained in the proper procedures and caution necessary to guard against carelessness and thoughtless acts which are the cause of so many man-made holocausts.

Fortunately the organization, technique and equipment employed in protecting brush and forest sections against fires, whether caused by man or the frequent lightning storms of nature, is being perfected and increased in effectiveness in combatting these flaming outbreaks.

Well trained personnel are on guard to warn and observe the public in complying with precautions regarding careful use and restrictions related to smoking, matches and fire. Lookout posts are well spaced and manned constantly. Aerial patrols cover vast areas quickly. A modern system provides instant communication to flash warnings, locate and guide firefighters to incipient fires. Ground and aerial transportation make possible quick application of new and more effective materials and methods in controlling and extinguishing flames.

Yet despite the greatest of vigilance and precautions every summer fire season sees a number of needless conflagrations break out in widely scattered sections, some of which thwart man's hardest efforts to stop them and sweep over large areas denuding slopes of grass, brush and timber with disastrous later results and frequently taking heavy toll of wildlife, valuable properties, homes and human lives as well.

Newcomers and many residents may not realize it, but more than half of this State's expansive area, more than 50,000,000 square miles in extent, including much of its natural wealth and irreplaceable beauty, is encompassed in our sparsely inhabited mountain terrain. California therefore has a tremendous stake in its ability and certain success in winning every battle... and fast... against the ever lurking demon of fire.

With a longer and dryer summer season, the fire threat is manifestly so grave this year that everyone entering the danger zones must be even more cautious and cooperative than ever if California is to be saved from a staggering loss in the ruin by fire of much of its most enjoyable and vitally essential watershed regions.

How ya fixed
For your favorite smoke?
Better stock up
So you won't go broke.

Perhaps it hasn't been called to your attention but come next Wednesday, July 1, there'll be that new state cigarette tax of 3 cents slapped on every pack.

LET'S BE STATISTICAL (old school sport that I am) and figure that the two-pack-a-day smoker is going to dish out $21.96 extra in the year.

Don't tell me my multiplication is wrong. Next year is Leap Year.

Wonder what they'll do to the cigarette vending machines. Probably add a full nickel.

They might stick the change in pennies under the cellophane like they used to.

Remember? Every time you ripped open a pack you had to chase rolling pennies over the floor.

THOSE WHO SMOKE cigars, pipes or roll their own escape the tax.

In many spots where cigarettes are permitted without restraint, cigars and pipes are strictly verboten. Why? They smell.

If this new tax turns many to cigars and pipes the good housewife who lets hubby have the boys in once a week for a poker game, is going to have to air out the house for three days instead of the present three hours.

And she'll never get it out of the drapes.

BUT THAT ISN'T ALL of the gloomy side of the news.

Seems we aren't safe anymore on land, by sea or from the air. In one day's supply of metropolitan newspapers, I learn:

Killer sharks are increasing in southland coastal waters and a 15-footer scared everybody out of the surf at Long Beach Sunday.

VACATION HIKERS have been warned that rattlesnakes are numerous this year, right at the edges of Los Angeles and one L. A. paper had a banner line on Page One: RATTLESNAKES MUST GO.

And if that isn't enough, a woman digging in her garden north of Los Angeles narrowly missed being hit by a jagged 3-foot piece of a missile which had exploded in midair.

EVEN THE KIDS aren't safe. Just when they have the abandoned refrigerator menace licked and the open canals fenced, comes the plastic bag.

Parents argue warned to keep them away from the children, especially the boys who pull them over their heads to play space men.

The misanthrope who used to tell the kids to go out and play in the traffic now just hands them a plastic bag.

SEEMS THAT ABOUT the only safe place these days is some nice, dark bar.

And even there you should wait five to fifteen minutes to let your eyes get accustomed to the gloom before looking for a place to light.

You might trip over some somnolent patron's feet.

This dreary message comes to you on the last day of National Humor Week.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

"The Indians slept out on the ground all the time and were perfectly comfortable." I told my 4-year-old heir to our pioneer blood. "They didn't think it was cold."

"Co-o-o-l-d," he said, shivering.

"I'm freezing!" said my daughter.

MATTER OF FACT, I was blooming, near stiff myself. I don't see how the Indians did it. But I was giving a demonstration of camping out. Heavenly days, our pioneer blood is certainly getting thin.

We are 8,000 feet up in the Sierra Nevada. All day we fished in the rushing waters of Bear Creek alongside our camp ground. We did not catch any fish. (But we gave them a good scare I think.)

THE SUN WARMED the pine needles and they gave off a fine fragrance. The afternoon breeze rustled the aspens. There were a few snow banks under the rock cliffs.

But when the sun dropped over the sawtooth range, the breeze came chilly off the mountain snow. The melted creek water was cold enough to make your teeth ache.

WE SLEPT in sleeping bags. I had forgotten how hard the ground is. There is always one buried rock that juts up and digs into you all night long.

Besides I had put the ax down in my bag—so the young woodsmen would not arise early and chop off a leg. If I rolled off the rock, I rolled on the ax. And vice versa.

A cold full moon filtered down through the trees.

At 4 in the morning, the children were huddling for warmth. And I was thinking seriously of joining them.

"I'M DYING," SAID my daughter. She had on all her sweaters and one of mine.

"Die quietly," I said coldly. "Your own great-grandfather crossed these mountains. He never complained."

At least not that I can find out at this late date. "That night I slept a sweet sleep," he wrote in his diary in 1830. He was just a few miles south of here. Where the gold rush trail crosses Carson Pass at Tragedy Springs.

There is a monument up on the summit at 9,640 feet. "The highest point ever reached by the covered wagon..."

I CRAWLED out in the freezing dawn and threw a few sticks on the fire. I washed my face in the creek—it nearly killed me, but the moppets were watching. I considered shaving, but gave it up. I am not made of iron.

The children lay in the sack and watched me moodily.

I cooked some bacon and trout. I put the coffee on. It smelled wonderful.

THE SUN EDGED over Nevada and into California. The air began to warm and the breeze was softer. The offspring came out of their sleeping bag and stood around sniffing the breakfast. We tossed a fishline into the water. Just in case some trout felt lucky.

We then considered the whole situation—and I must say my children are considerate.

They LOVED camping, they said. They would LOVE to stay mere nights. On the hard ground. BUT — My daughter had just remembered she had a hair appointment. And the boy was worried about his toy fire engine. And—oh, a number of things.

"AND IF WE DRIVE down home tonight, Daddy, I'll cook dinner tonight."

So I let myself be persuaded. We drove over the Sonora Pass and down through the oak trees into the California valleys. I grumbled all the way about being dragged out of the rugged pioneer life. It was a pretty good act, if I do say so myself. O, pioneers!

EARL WILSON:

A Table for Three

NEW YORK — Since Kim Novak tumbles into love with a guy of 56 in her last picture, I creaked up to her hotel suite with the idea of getting her to fall in love with me — even if only for an hour or two.

"Why not?" I thought. "I'm not 56 yet — and there are people who think I'm handsomer than Fredric March."

(Just to pick somebody at random who thinks so — take my mother.)

"I ordered lunch for us," Kim crooned, taking another visitor to the door. "The steaks aren't here yet — sit down and have some water."

"Well, well!" I hummed happily to myself. Then I noticed the table was set for three. We were to have a chaperone — her press agent.

"Do you think," I asked when Kim finally bounced down into her chair, "that you could really fall in love with a middle-aged man?" (No use in being too specific at first.)

"You fall in love with a man for his qualities, not his age," Kim sang back. "I don't when I meet somebody go up and say 'How old are you?'"

"Well, take Dick Quine," I said, naming the producer some people consider her favorite now. He's an older man.

"What do you mean, 'older'?" Kim retorted loyally. "He's about 35 or 36."

"I thought he was 42 or 43," I answered humbly.

"That's not true!" Kim said. "Anyway, there are plenty of men 60 years old who have just as young ideas as men 30 years old, and men 30 years old who have ideas of men 60 years old."

"Paddy Chayefsky wrote about real life," Kim added (referring to his picture, "Middle of the Night"). "So this condition must exist."

"Would you say Aly Khan is in the older or younger group?" I asked next. Aly had been escorting Kim around New York.

"I don't know his age, but he's in the younger group!" Kim laughed, thinking perhaps of how he took her to three Spanish night clubs in one night. "He's a fine man. I greatly respect him. In London when we went to the Derby, he arranged for my mother to sit in his box. He's one of my favorite people of all time."

"And Cary Grant—" I started to say.

"Oh, he's got young ideas!" Kim laughed again—and I mentioned the report in France that when they danced, he kept nibbling her ear. I added that somebody'd said "Cary's on a diet."

"Did people really say that?" Kim cried in surprise.

"I can see why they might think that. When I dance, I swing my face around and the man's face might come about to my ear. I think I would have known it if someone were biting my ear or whatever."

And to show how it happens, Kim leaped up from her seat and got into a dance stance. So did I. At last Kim was in my arms—I was holding her close—my chin went up dangerously near her ear—and our chaperone was standing by ready to help for the cops if I made a false move.

Strangely enough, after the demonstration, Kim didn't ask to repeat it. She was contented to go back to her steak.

"Are you likely to marry Dick Quine?" I asked her.

Kim may deny that she rededicated at the question but she did. "That is something I can't say," she said. "I wouldn't say one way or the other."

"About the report that you spend so much time washing your hair?"

"I like to feel real clean," she explained. "I wash it every two days. And I like doing it myself. It's one of my few chances of being alone."

MIKE CONNOLLY:

'First' Was Second

HOLLYWOOD — CBS-TV boasted that Playhouse 90's "Dark As the Night" was the first feature-length movie ever to get a premiere on television. The trouble with claiming a "first" in anything is — it usually isn't. This one was no exception, since "The Constant Husband," with Kay Kendall and Rex Harrison was the first such film to have a TV premiere.

Speaking of "preems," the year's kookiest kaffeeklatsch at that league was, without any question, Walt Disney's unveiling of his new rides at Disneyland. I can't list all the stars who were there because I haven't got all year — suffice to say it was like New Year's Eve and the Fourth of July rolled into one.

WALT HAD MORE fun on his own Monorail and Matterhorn rides than the kids... The reason nobody spotted any Secret Servicemen around Walt's guest of honor, Vice President Richard Nixon, was because they were disguised as Keystone Kops.

At one point in the proceedings Nixon left Walt's side, but tonholed John Russell of TV's Lawman series, and said, "Meet your two top fans." They turned out to be Nixon's starry eyed daughters, Julie and Tricia. Pretty Pat Nixon told me, "The girls are nervous because Mr. Russell is the first TV star they've met."

TV exec to an employee: "So what happens if I give you a raise — you just go into debt faster!"

IT'S REACHED THE point where everybody in Hollywood has an agent — even tailors! MC set up the deal with the tailor who made Ray Milland's $5,500 wardrobe (39 suits) for the actor's Markham series.

Young Bobby Darin took second billing to George Burns during their saloon stand at the Sahara in Las Vegas but Hollywood's new Cloister is giving the lad star billing starting July 30.

The tragedy of George (Sinnerman) Reeves, who committed suicide: When his Superman series was washed out of TV by the big Western shows, George tried to get movie parts. One was the lead opposite Susan Hayward in "Woman Obsessed."

Stephen Boyd got it instead—because the producers were afraid movie audiences would sneaker at Superman playing a straight part.

IMMEDIATE REASON for George's mental stress, according to his medico, Dr. Louis Feiger, was a nervous breakdown brought on by the concussion he suffered in an auto crash a month before he killed himself. But the real villain in the piece is the Hollywood system of typecasting.

Wormar "Brother" right hand,

Warner-TV, borrowed from its left hand, Warner Records, for Bob Conrad's regular leading lady in the new Hawaiian Eye series — Connie Stevens. The same Miss Stevens who recorded that record — breaking record, "Kookie, Kookie," with another Warnerite, Edy Byrne.

LUCILLE BALL went to bed with Actors Equity for the 25 young actors she has under contract at Desilu Workshop. So got the union to relax its rules so that the kids could get raises — up from Equity's $50-per-week minimum to the Screen Actors' Guild $185 minimum... All these business matters for Lucie, in addition to co-starring in the now — shooting "Milton Berle Hides Out at the Ricardo" for Westinghouse — and how does she find time for it?

"Ask Desi," she told me, "how he finds time for co-starring with Milton and myself AND directing AND producing AND Matter of fact, we don't find the time for it—we make it."

VICTOR BORGE has been giving audiences at Hollywood's Greek Theatre an outdoor preview of his next TV spec for the past two weeks. In addition to his piano antics, The Great Dane is directing a symphony orchestra for the first time. The orchestra plays Tchaikovsky and Rachmaninoff mostly, but only the most melodious parts.

Victor, whose Big Business sideline is raising Cornish hens at his farm in Connecticut, says he feels toward the music much as he feels toward fowl: "I like the white meat!"

WHY IS BORGE on a classical kick? I think I found the answer at the party following his Greek Theatre opening. Chicago diva Vivienne della Chiesa, who will guest on one of his specs, was there too.

Said Borge to Vivienne: "So you're singing for your supper — but how wonderful that you had your classical career first, an opera and on the concert stage! I failed in the classical in order to be successful!" Borge said it sadly. But he's having his innings, at long last, as a maestro conducting "the white meat" of Tchaikovsky and Rachmaninoff.

Add NBC spec for this winter: The Van Cliburn Story.

CLAIRE TREVOR is on the Wagon and I do mean the first Wagon Train segment of the new season, "The C. L. Harding Story." Ward Bond held down the male starring end of the on-film opening stanza while Bob Horton finished his Detroit stage engagement in "Picnic."

Definition of a literary tea (from that well-known lady author who traveled the literary tea circuit, June Havoc): "A party where a lot of bags go to get soaked."

LAKE TAHOE will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Jay Mandeville Jr. when they return from their honeymoon. The bride is the former V. Ann Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Evans of Cathedral City. (Village Studio Photo).

Mandeville-Evans Vows Said

Sentiment, manifest by the handiwork of loved ones, marked the wedding of V. Ann Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Evans of Cathedral City. When she recited her vows Saturday evening with James Jay Mandeville Jr. of Lake Tahoe, she wore a gown of pale ivory silk organza over kit-tensar satin, made and fashioned by her mother. She carried a bouquet of white orchid and stephanotis, arranged by her bridegroom. Her crown, which held up a fingertip veil of white illusion, was made and presented to her by a friend of the family. Around her throat she wore a heart-shaped heirloom moonstone that is a family keepsake.

The eight o'clock ceremony took place in the Palm Springs Community Church, with Rev. James H. Blackstone officiating. Candelighters were Joyce and Janice King, high school friends of the bride.

Soloist was Dori Parker who sang "Always" and "Because" and sang the Lord's Prayer during the ceremony.

Maid of honor Sylvia Buck of Palos Verdes Estates, and the groom's two sisters Margaret and Janice Mandeville, were bridesmaids. They wore similar gowns of blue organza and carried arrangements of blue delphinium. In contrast the flower girl, Robin Turner of El Centro wore pink gown and hat.

Best man was Gary Asmusin of Los Angeles, and Terry Lamereaux, also of Los Angeles, served as usher.

The reception followed the ceremony at the church, and the guest book was in charge of Kennia Gillett, sorority sister of the bride. The bride's mother, Mrs. V. H. Evans, wore a dress of blue organza over blue taffeta, and the groom's mother wore a peach organza over peach taffeta.

After their honeymoon trip, they will make their home at Lake Tahoe.

A graduate of Palm Springs High School, the bride attended UCLA, where she majored in music and was affiliated with Theta U sorority. The groom has been attending Santa Monica City College.

After their honeymoon trip, they will make their home at Lake Tahoe.

The July meeting of the Auxiliary will be held at the home of Louise Paul, president, heard her give a report on some outstanding facts learned at the convention held in San Jose this month—collected in one year from Auxiliaries in the State of California and donated to cancer research was the sum of $20,695.

One hundred punts of blood are being held in reserve for widow and orphan residents of the V.F.W. Eaton Rapids, Michigan home, she reported.

Also reported was that the building fund accumulation to date for the proposed V.F.W. Memorial Building in Washington, D. C. is $30,000. President Paul said that all quotas on projects have been met 100 per cent by the local Auxiliary. The total paid-up membership in the State of California to the Ladies Auxiliary, as of June 15th, is 18,061 members.

The July meeting of the Auxiliary will be held at the home of member Pearl Snyder, the August meeting at the home of Marvel Barrett, and the September meeting at the home of President Paul. Notices will be mailed. These meetings will be preceded by dinner at a dollar a person, families invited, beginning at 7 p.m., followed by the meeting at 8 p.m.

Quick Dinner ...

Cook dinner for 4 in just 20 minutes: Hawaiian short ribs with rice cakes. Bone 1 1/2 to 2 pounds of short ribs and marinate the meat several hours or overnight in a mixture of 1 cup of soy sauce, 1 teaspoon each of ginger and brown sugar and 1 clove of garlic, halved.

Make rice cakes by mixing 1 1/2 cups of cooked rice with 1 egg yolk, 4 teaspoon of salt and 1/2 teaspoon each of pepper and nutmeg. Mix well, shape into 4 patties, dip in 1/3 cup of cracker crumbs and brush with 2 tablespoons of melted butter.

Drain meat, reserving the marinade. Place meat and rice cakes on broiler tray three inches from heat source and broil 20 minutes. Turn rice cakes once while cooking and baste the meat frequently with reserved marinade.

THOUSAND PALMS

By ELIZABETH NELSON

According to Groceryman D. Wallace of Wallace Grocery, Thousand Palms is reported to have had a "6 inch rain" last Saturday afternoon — "6 inches between drops, that is." A good shower, though of too-short duration, did leave puddles of water on the streets at Thousand Palms.

The community was saddened to learn of the death last week of Mrs. Charles W. (Mary Jane) Marlowe, a former resident and business woman, in St. Jude Hospital, Fullerton. Following the death of the late Mr. Marlowe about 18 months ago, Mrs. Marlowe had sold their Thousand Palms restaurant and moved to Banning. Recently she had been living at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ethel N. Yerington, in Yorba Linda.

Mrs. Marlowe was born July 23, 1889, at Marshalltown, Iowa, and came to California in 1933. She and the late Mr. Marlowe operated a restaurant in Thousand Palms for 10 years, and were among the first "settlers" in the Shangri-La Palms subdivision in Thousand Palms.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Tobin of Banning (also formerly of Thousand Palms), a son, Charles W. Marlowe of Palm Springs, six brothers, three sisters and five grandchildren.

Services for Mrs. Marlowe were held Monday of this week in Fullerton, and interment was at Rosecrans Military Cemetery, Point Loma, San Diego, where the late Mr. Marlowe, a retired Navy man, also rests.

Sympathy also goes to Mr. and Mrs. Leon S. Robinson of Hidden Springs Ranch, Thousand Palms, who learned this week of the sudden death of Mr. Robinson's brother, Vernon C. Robinson of Los Angeles, who was stricken by a heart attack in London on June 20 while on a six-week tour of Europe. He was 59.

A conductor and organist at the time of his death Robinson was musical director of the Rosemead Methodist Church in Rosemead, and the Westwood Temple. He was a graduate of the Oberlin (Ohio) College Conservatory of Music, and had conducted more than 300 symphony orchestra concerts during his career. From 1935 to 1938 he served as the director of the federal music projects for Riverside, Imperial and San Bernardino Counties.

In 1948 the late Mr. Robinson composed and conducted the music for the Pilgrimage Play in Los Angeles. He had also served as organist for various churches in Southern California, including the First Congregational Church of Pomona, the Torrence Methodist Church, and the Second Church of Christ Scientist of Los Angeles.

Mr. Robinson was born in Oelwein, Iowa, and came to Southern California in 1929, after serving for two years as organist at Central Union Church in Honolulu. In addition to his widow and brother, Mr. Robinson is survived by two sons, a sister, and a granddaughter.

It was "Happy Birthday" last week to two of Thousand Palms' oldest citizens: Charles Steinmetz, who celebrated his 82nd birthday, and Mrs. Steinmetz, his wife, whose 76th year milestone was passed. Mr. and Mrs. Steinmetz are natives of Hungary, who built a home in the Shangri-La Palms subdivision of Thousand Palms and moved here a few years ago, after having lived for many years in Los Angeles — migrating there from Pennsylvania, following their emigration from Hungary.

Helping them celebrate these important dates were Mr. and Mrs. John Papp and daughter, Joanne. Mrs. Papp is a daughter of the Steinmetz', and the Papps live next door to them in Thousand Palms. Mr. and Mrs. Steinmetz also have another daughter, who resides with her family in Hungary, and two sons — one in Los Angeles and one in Canada.

Recent houseguests of the Steinmetzes were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Raduly of Hemet, friends from their Los Angeles days.

Other recent houseguests of the Charles Steinmetz' and John Papp were Dr. and Mrs. George Dee and their son and daughter. Dr. Lee is a missionary, and Mrs. Dee a nurse, who are on their five-year furlough from service in Southern Rhodesia. Dr. Dee is a brother of Mr. Papp's sister-in-law, Mrs. Louis Papp of Los Angeles. Interesting to all were the colored movies of Southern Rhodesia which the Dees showed to their hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Torgerson of Phoenix were recent "stopover" guests (en route to and from a Los Angeles visit with a sister of Mrs. Torgerson) in the home of Misses Mary and Eve Finson and their brother, Ed Finson, in Shangri-La Palms. Mrs. Torgerson is a niece of the Finsons.

Miss Eve Finson left Monday of this week for a week's sojourn in La Jolla with her friend, Miss Lydia Schneider.

Mrs. A. E. Nelson and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Nelson, motored to Idyllwild on last Sunday to attend the annual June picnic of the Shadow Mountain Gem and Mineral Society, of which they are both members, held at the Riverside County Park there.

WHILE MEMBERS of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Association were on their recent goodwill tour of Nevada, they were guests of the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas for two days.

Dr. Edwin Dingle To Give Sermon At New City

YUCCA VALLEY — "Love, the Essence of All Religions" will be the subject under discussion by Dr. Edwin J. Dingle, founder-chancellor of the First Sanctuary of Mystic Christianity near here.

Next project for the First Sanctuary will be a memorial chapel dedicated to the memory of Dr. Dingle's son who died a month ago.

The First Sanctuary of Mystic Christianity is located on the Twentynine Palms Highway between Yucca Valley and Joshua Tree.

Official Protest

County Officials Oppose New Rnle

A written objection to recently initiated procedure regulating compliance with the pay raise plan for employees was presented to the Board of Supervisors this week by Flood Control Engineer John Bryant.

He was accompanied by the eight other department heads who had signed the letter of objection. Action on the complaint was delayed until Monday.

"PRIOR TO this time," said Bryant, "the ordinance provided that step increases would be automatically granted if written notice denying the increase was not received at least 30 days ahead of the anniversary date on which the step pay increase would become effective."

"Under the amendment," Bryant declared, "the personnel officer now submits forms in duplicate to each department head for every employee in his department on which he must indicate whether or not he will allow the step increase. The amended ordinance is an usurpation of the administrative functions of the department heads, and unnecessarily increases the paper work of the department heads as well as the personnel officer."

"THE ORDINANCE in its original form, before amendment, was most satisfactory, contained sufficient safeguards, was specific in its intent, and enabled the department heads to administer pay raises in an efficient and effective manner. We request that it be restored."

Approval of Bryant's objections was given by the county auditor, health officer, recorder, district attorney, building director, road commissioner, welfare director, and assessor. Known to have refused to sign the letter were the tax collector and planning director.

tor. E. O. Peterson, county treasurer, said he doubted that he would sign it. Others could not be reached. There are approximately 30 department heads.

The letter revealed that all is not happiness in the county's administrative family.

"WE OPPOSE METHODS now used in presenting these matters to department heads," said the nine department heads. "Announcements are made at department head meetings with no follow-up in writing. This means that the meetings are not given sufficient opportunity to fully analyze propositions and sometimes are made aware of them only when they have been written into agreements."

"We recommend that in the future all department heads be given a full account of all propositions presented at department head meetings, at least two weeks before any final action on the proposals is taken," said Bryant. Peterson remarked later that the matter of keeping department heads fully informed of proposed changes in administration is of major importance. He said that the ordinance amendment effecting a change in the procedure for step plan pay raises is only one of several in which some department heads have not been favored.

Healing Power Of The Word To Be Stressed

The healing power of the Word will be stressed in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christian Science" to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

This story of a healing by Jesus from Mark's Gospel will be included in the Bible selections: "AND THERE CAME a leper to him, beseeching him and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and said unto him, I will; be thou clean. And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed" (1:40-42).

"The Word was made flesh," declares Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures."

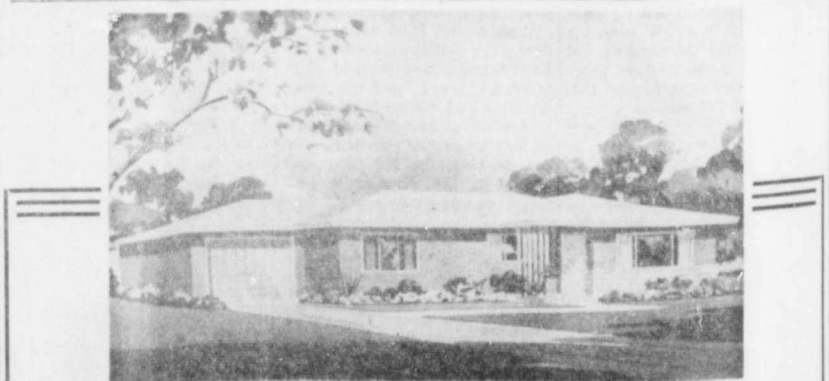

"SHE CONTINUES, 'Divine Truth must be known by its effects on the body as well as on the mind, before the Science of being can be demonstrated. Hence its embodiment in the incarnate Jesus,—that life-link forming the connection through which the real reaches the unreal. Soul rebukes sense, and Truth destroys error' (1:350)."

The Golden Text is from I Peter (1:25), "The word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the Gospel is preached unto you."

'Religion of One Word' Is Sermon

CATHEDRAL CITY — "The Religion of One Word" is the topic chosen by the Rev. James Arnold, pastor of the Cathedral City Community Church, for his final sermon before leaving on vacation.

Sunday morning worship services through the summer months are at 8:30 a.m. Nursery is provided during the morning worship hours, and church school for ages kindergarten through junior high will be held at 9:30 a.m.

ELIMINATE CAPITAL GAINS TAX RECEIVE TAX-FREE INCOME FOR LIFE

POMONA COLLEGE ANNOUNCES a new investment plan which can provide you tax-exempt income for life as well as other substantial tax savings. By exchanging securities at market value for a tax-exempt life income contract guaranteed by the college, you will...

- eliminate all tax on capital gain
- obtain tax free income for life
- receive 30% contribution credit
- reduce your income tax
- have more spendable income
- provide income for your survivor
- lessen estate and inheritance taxes
- establish a memorial fund in your name at the College.

Since the College is a tax-exempt organization, it can do for you what you cannot do for yourself. (1) It can take your appreciated property, whether real estate or securities, and capitalize it at market value without tax on the gain. (2) It can reduce your taxable gross income subject to tax by as much as 30% in the year you acquire your contract. (3) It will pay you and your survivor income for life which is free from Federal tax, and in some cases, free from state income tax. Best of all, tax savings pay a portion of the cost of your contract and you receive tax-free interest for life on these savings.

Write today for free booklet "Tax-Exempt Income for Life from Pomona College." It will show by example what this program can do for you.

City Will Sponsor Adult Swim Class

Vernie Howeth to Direct Program at School Pool

Swimming classes for adults—as well as second session for children—will be offered at Palm Springs High School by the City Recreation Department, it was announced today.

Recreation Supt. Howard Haddock said that the classes would be offered:

—FOR ADULTS, from 5:30-6:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, beginning Monday.

—For children, from 1-2 p.m., Monday through Friday, beginning July 6.

Pool manager Vernie Howeth is in charge of both programs which will be offered on both a beginning and intermediate level.

HADDOCK ALSO reported that 150 youngsters had attended the initial two weeks swimming instruction. The superintendent pointed out that this represents the largest turnout in the seven year history of the swimming instruction program here.

The swimming pool is open for swimming from 1-7 p.m., daily except Sunday, with admission to the Olympic-sized pool based on age 13, 25 cents for young people a range of 20 cents for children to age 13-18, and 50 cents for persons over age 18.

HADDOCK ADDED that the Palm Springs Unified School District has requested that swimmers park their cars in the large parking area to the east of the high school auditorium. Construction work is underway on the campus and cars parked in other locations are to be held in violation of no parking regulations.

Decathlon Title Goes to Chinese

KINGSBURG, Calif. (UP) — Nationalist's China's C. K. Yang has replaced Rafer Johnson as the National AAU decathlon champion.

Yang won the distinction early today after plodding through the 1,500 meter run with a slightly pulled leg muscle.

The husky 25-year-old just did edge Dave Edstrom, 20-year-old University of Oregon ace. He ran up 7,549 points for the 10-event contest to Edstrom's 7,544.

Third place went to Mike Herman, formerly of New York University, who had 6,760 points. Phil Mulkey, Southeastern AAU champ from Memphis, Tenn., was fourth at 6,346.

Kid to Meet Hawkins

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Filipino Danny Kay will meet California bantamweight champion Dwight Hawkins in a 12-round title match July 11 at Hollywood Legion Stadium.

SPAHN NETS 10TH; BUMS WIN AGAIN

United Press International Fred Haney still says he's going to quit after this season, and that's his privilege, but 38-year-old Warren Spahn keeps pitching as if he plans to go on forever.

Shooting for a 20-victory season for the 10th time in his career, the veteran Milwaukee southpaw reached the halfway mark by beating the Chicago Cubs, 11-1, for his 10th triumph of the season Friday night.

Olmedo Top Choice for Wimbledon

MacKay and Mulloy Still Holding Out in Championships

WIMBLEDON, England (UP) — All three American survivors—Alex Olmedo, Barry MacKay, and Gardner Mulloy—were given a good chance today to gain quarter-final berths in men's singles in the Wimbledon tennis championships.

A year ago only one Yank, MacKay, was able to go as far as the quarter-finals and he was eliminated there.

THE TOP-SEEDED Olmedo, hero of the U.S. reconquest of the Davis Cup last December, was favored to beat Danish Davis Cup ace Torben Ulrich. MacKay, fifth-seeded Davis Cupper from Dayton, Ohio, was pitted against the dangerous British champion Billy Knight.

And Mulloy, the 45-year bespectacled lawyer from Coral Gables, Fla., who became a sentimental hero here when he upset young Earl Buchholz Jr. Friday, was a slight pick over France's Jean Molinari.

A BIG QUESTION was whether the aging Mulloy could bounce back so quickly from his brilliant 6-4, 7-5, 6-4 triumph over the 18-year-old Buchholz of St. Louis, Mo.

Olmedo and MacKay won their third-round matches on Thursday. Four Americans have progressed to the fourth round of women's singles.

Motorcyclist Dies On Ascot Track

GARDENA (UP) — A 30-year-old motorcycle racer died late Friday night from injuries suffered earlier in a motorcycle race as Ascot Stadium, where a nationally-ranked racer was killed last week.

Robert Somerville, of Wilmington, succumbed shortly before midnight at the Broadway Hospital in Los Angeles.

SPAHN NETS 10TH; BUMS WIN AGAIN

SPAHN, NOW AHEAD of his game-winning pace for any year since the Braves came to Milwaukee in 1953, helped his own cause by hitting the 22nd home run of his career in the seventh inning.

He already holds the National League record for home runs hit by a pitcher.

WITH 256 VICTORIES already under his belt, Spahn now is aiming for the all-time record of Eppa (Jeptha) Rixey, only other NL left-hander to exceed him in total wins.

The Braves pounded out 19 hits in retaining their two-game lead. Wes Covington drove in three runs with three hits and Johnny Logan, who also had three hits, knocked in two more.

SECOND-PLACE San Francisco down Philadelphia, 8-0 Los Angeles won its fifth straight by defeating Pittsburgh, 6-5 and Cincinnati beat St. Louis, 7-6 in 10 innings.

Cleveland remained a game in front in the American League race with a 11-5 decision Baltimore moved into second place by sweeping a two-night doubleheader from Detroit, 12-7 and 4-1; New York climbed into a third-place tie with Chicago by topping the White Sox, 8-4, and Washington liked Kansas City, 8-4.

Two-Stroke Lead For Louise Suggs In Lady's Open

PITTSBURGH (UP) — "This is a funny game. The way some of these girls are playing, anyone of them could have an outstanding round and win it all."

The speaker was Louise Suggs, consistent golfer from Sea Island, Ga., who takes a two-stroke lead into the final 36 holes of the women's National Open Championship today.

The attractive belle from Dixie fired a four-over-par 74 Friday to card a 145 at the midway mark of the 72-hole medal play at the tricky Churchill Valley Country Club course.

Defending champ Mickey Wright, Patty Berg and Churchill women's pro Marlene Bauer Hagee are tied for second place at 147. Mrs. Hagee had shared the first-round lead with Miss Suggs at 71, but her score ballooned to 76 Friday. Miss Wright and Miss Berg both registered 75's.

Junior Police Win, Take Over Third In Little League

The Junior Police—who started out slow but who have improved greatly during ensuing weeks—scored 11 runs last night to beat the Palm Springs Water Company and so move into third place in the Little League.

Securing the third place position has given the Junior Police the dubious distinction of meeting the pennant-winning Hathaway-Palm Canyon Market team in the first round of the Sears Trophy

LITTLE LEAGUE STANDINGS	P	W	L	T	Pts
Hathaway Braves	11	2	1	1	19
Rotary Wheels	10	4	4	0	12
Junior Police	12	5	6	1	11
PSC Water Co.	11	4	7	0	8
Lincoln-Mercury	10	2	8	0	4

series which starts Friday. The two teams have met twice before, the first time the police were beaten 5-3, and the second time the police won with a score of 15-11.

In the second game of last night's doubleheader, the Rotary Wheels beat the Lincoln Mercury team, 10-4, to hold their second place position in the League.

The Lincoln Mercury nine is in last place.

BASILIO, FULLMER WILL FIGHT IN S.F. —IF LICENSE OKED

NEW YORK (UP) — Weather or not Carmen Basilio and Gene Fullmer clash for the National Boxing Association's version of the middleweight championship at San Francisco Aug. 28 depends on whether the promoter can get a California license.

That was the picture drawn today by promoter Norm Rothschild of Syracuse, N.Y., who has tentatively signed the two ex-champs for the battle at the Cow Palace.

Tiger Jones Wins Over Argentinian

NEW YORK (UP) — Ralph (Tiger) Jones, using a clever assortment of combinations, slashed his way to a majority 10-round decision Friday night over slugging Argentine middleweight Victor Zalazar.

The seasoned and steady-punching Jones, rated 10th among contenders, drew the approval of both judges. The referee called the bout a draw.

Winger Chases Pott in Chicago's Gleneagles' Golf

CHICAGO (UP) — It was a two-man fight between unknown Johnny Pott and veteran Bo Winger heading into the third round of Gleneagle's $57,000 Chicago Open today.

Pott, a 23-year-old Shreveport, La., player who was married only 25 days ago, still held first place with a 130, 130 strokes under par, but Winger, who nearly tied him with the best second round score, a second consecutive 66, was only two strokes behind at 132 and in position to move ahead, should Pott falter.

But behind this pair the closest challengers were four strokes off the pace.

Amateur Jack Nicklaus, Columbus, Ohio, and veterans of the tour, Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex., and Arnold Palmer, Ligonier, Pa., all were at 136 by virtue of combinations of 67 and 69 for their first two trips around the links.

Ingo Ties Dempsey Knockdown Record in Winning Heavy Title

New Champ Eager for Return Bout

NEW YORK (UP) — Ingemar Johansson of Sweden, who looked like Jack Dempsey and tied his knockdown record in winning the world heavyweight championship, is perfectly willing—even eager—to try it again in September if dethroned Floyd Patterson thinks it was a fluke.

Johansson and his handlers made that clear today even as they celebrated his stunning third-round technical knockout over Patterson at Yankee Stadium Friday night—in which handsome "Ingo" tied a Dempsey mark by scoring seven knockdowns in one round.

BUT PATTERSON actually didn't see that right fist—that "Goleborg thunderbolt"—early in the third round when it exploded on his chin as part of a left-right, one-two punch, and dropped him to the canvas for the first of seven electrifying trips.

It was the heavy, booming right that dropped him five times, a left hook once and a left-right-left once.

HANDSOME, DIMPLED, brown haired, Ingemar, at 26, became Sweden's first world champion in any division when referee Ruby Goldstein refused to count over the numbed Patterson the seventh time, but waved his hands in signal that the fight was ended, that Johansson had won on a technical knockout.

The time was 2:03 of the third round. It was unbeaten Ingemar's 22nd straight victory and 14th knockout.

THE FIGHT, threatened with a second postponement by two hours of rain at the stadium Friday night, turned the 5-1 underdog into the first European world heavyweight champion in a quarter-century since Italian Primo Carnera lost the title to Max Baer in 1934.

CITY COLT TEAM PLAYS MONTEBELLO

The Elks-Boys' Club Colt League team, who currently lead the Coachella Valley Recreation District League with a perfect record, will play an exhibition double-header against Montebello's Colt team beginning at 6 p. m., tonight, in Polo Grounds here.

Ron Bailey and Leroy Segundo, the two pitching aces for the local Colt entry, will split the hurling responsibilities against the visiting Montebello nine.

THE ELKS-BOYS' CLUB team were "blown out" of a game in Indio with Imperial Distributors on Thursday night but still have an unblemished record.

On Tuesday, J. D. Walton and Segundo combined pitching talents to defeat the Oasis Wildcats by a 9-7 score. The game was played at Oasis.

THE TEAMS in the CVRD league include the Indio Rancheros, the Imperial Distributors and the Oasis Wildcats—in addition to the Village entry.

There is no admission charge for tonight's double header at the Polo Grounds.

REDDY KILOWATT'S 11 RULES for LOWER COST ELECTRIC cooling!

Dear Boss:

I'm anxious for you to get top satisfaction and economy out of your electric cooling equipment. My 11 rules provide you with the key.

—Reddy

1. Keep windows and doors shut and close off unused areas.
2. Shade windows from direct sunlight with outside blinds, awnings, louvers, etc.
3. Weatherstrip doors and windows.
4. Use light-colored exterior walls and roofing material.
5. INSIST on adequate wall and ceiling insulation when buying or building.
6. When home, set your thermostat at 80 degrees and leave it there. (You can expect increased cooling cost for each degree you set the thermostat below 80 in very hot weather.)
7. Keep filters clean. Check once a month.
8. Use kitchen exhaust fan to put steam and heat from cooking outdoors. (Especially important if your range isn't electric.)
9. Use attic exhaust fan to reduce by 25% the amount of heat that comes through the ceiling into your home.
10. Have qualified expert check your cooling equipment annually.
11. Pick the right size of electric cooling unit for your home. (Contact a qualified dealer.)

Board Finds An Architect After Queries

Employment of Clinton Marr, Riverside architect, to prepare preliminary plans and working drawings for a purchasing department office and warehouse on the county-owned property at Washington and Indiana Avenues in Riverside was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week on recommendation of Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen.

Last week Andersen suggested that a choice be made between Herman Ruhna, Riverside architect, and the Palm Springs firm of Williams, Williams & J. F. Clark, but the supervisors asked him to contact and consider other qualified architects in the Riverside area.

Andersen reported this week that all local architects qualified to draw plans for concrete tilt-up slab type of warehouse construction had been considered with his resultant choice of Marr.

Estimated cost of the project, including the architect's fees of 6 per cent for the warehouse and 8 per cent for the office, is $100,000.

George Ripley Appointed Again

George S. Ripley was reappointed this week to the Board of Trade, and William Park of Banning was appointed to replace Harry McCarroll of Riverside. The terms of both Ripley and McCarroll expire June 30.

Heart disease and cancer are responsible for about 50 per cent of all deaths in the U.S.

Dear Abby ...

...by Abigail VanBuren

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: When I returned from a 3-week visit to take care of my daughter's new baby, I found a cheap earring between the cushions of my sofa. I questioned my husband. He admitted that one night he got restless and couldn't sleep and went uptown to a bar for a few drinks. He said he invited a gang of strangers home with him (including this woman who lost the earring). But he swears nothing happened. I said I'd forgive him, but I can't. I keep wondering if he told me the whole truth. I won't be satisfied till I know. How can I be sure?

DEAR MUST: Just keep harping on it and you'll drive him back to the bar in search of a nice sympathetic ear to go with the earring. Believe him, and forget it.

DEAR ABBY: I am a young divorcee with a problem. When I go out with a young man should I tell him I am divorced the first time I go out with him or should I wait until I know him better? My mother says it's none of his business. YOUNG DIVORCEE

DEAR YOUNG: Your mother is wrong. Wouldn't you want to know if a man had a divorce in his background? Give him the same break.

DEAR ABBY: We have two boys, 7 and 12. My husband is a fanatic about the boys getting hurt. The older boy has begged for a two-wheel bicycle for years so we finally got one last Christmas. His father won't let him ride it anywhere except in front of the house. He can't take it across any streets. His friends laugh at him. We live five blocks from school, but my husband drives the boys there in the morning and I pick them up. He is afraid they'll be hit by a car if they walk. I go along with his ideas to keep peace in the family. What else can I do? MRS. J.

DEAR MRS. J.: In an effort to keep his sons "safe" physically, Dad is crippling them emotionally. Children need to be taught to care for themselves. Your husband should have a long talk with a professional counselor.

DEAR ABBY: I wonder why there are so many women who can't get along with their mothers-in-law? I have two in my house plus my own mother and we get along just wonderful. When my first husband died his mother was living with us. She was 73 and in a wheelchair from a stroke so I kept her with me. She's jolly and never complains. I was married again to a man who had a 77-year-old widowed mother with sugar diabetes and one leg gone. So there are two in wheelchairs. You never saw sweeter women. My own mother is 76 and partially blind and she's with me, too. I read your column out loud every day, Abby, and when we hear other people's problems, we think we are real lucky. Love, SALLY

DEAR SALLY: You are lucky. Indeed, because you have a lot of love in your heart and know how to give it to others. Thank you for your beautiful letter and God bless you.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.
